Introduction:

The International Merchandise Trade Statistics (IMTS) report is compiled by the Tuvalu Central Statistics Division (CSD) on a quarterly basis with the assistance of trade data collected from the Tuvalu Customs department through the online system of ASYCUDA.

This IMTS report covers Tuvalu's total imports and total exports in correspondence to the Harmonised Coding System of Tuvalu (HS) of which are classified into categories by commodity and country. According to the trade data collected, Tuvalu has trade connections with its neighbouring region and countries within the Oceania, predominately Fiji, of which is Tuvalu's major partner country for its imports as well as exports.

With this IMTS report, the Tuvalu CSD aims to provide its users with relevant trade data that could interest users to develop better planning and consult trade deals in order to develop progress on relevant trade policies.

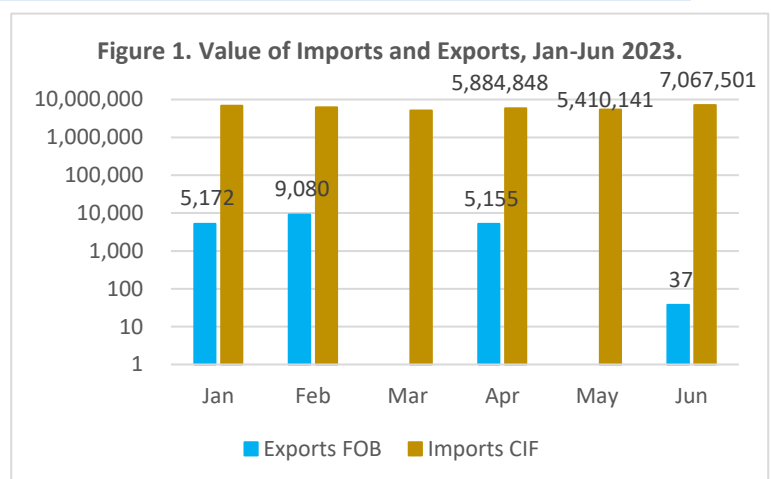

As follows is the IMTS report for the second quarter of 2023 based on an annual trend from 2018 to 2022, the monthly trend of 2023 from January to June 2023 as well as eight release tables containing Tuvalu's imports, exports and re-exports to further assist its users.

Analyses:

1. Value of Imports and Exports:

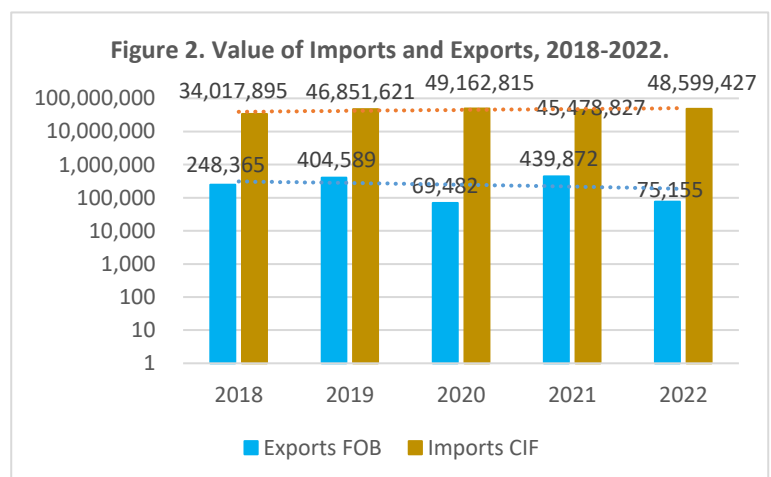

June 2023: Figure 1 illustrates the value of imports and exports as of June 2023, and it shows; total imports in June 2023 were $7,067,501, which is an approximate 31% increase from total imports in May 2023 ($5,410,141). There is also a slight decrease in total imports by approximately 8% from April 2023 to May 2023.

Note: Total exports from January to June 2023 may be subject to change in the upcoming reports due to inconsistencies in the data collected from Tuvalu Customs and the Department of Energy.*

2018-2022: Depicted alongside in Figure 2 is the annual IMTS from 2018 to 2022 which indicates a fluctuating trend of total imports as well as total exports throughout the five consecutive years. Listed below are the major turns of events related to the value of imports and exports;

2019: In 2019, the 50th meeting of the Pacific Island Forum was held in Tuvalu from the 13th August to the 16th of August 2019. Evidently, it is reflected through the significant increase of total imports by 38% and total exports by 63% from 2018 to 2019 as the country makes preparations for the major event. Note: HS Sections for Imports can be clarified in the following sections below.*

2020: In March 2020, Tuvalu went into lockdown during the Covid 19 pandemic. There is a significant drop in total exports (83%) during the pandemic and a slight increase in total imports (5%) from 2019 to 2020. Figure 2 above depicts that the total imports of 2020 were the greatest during the five consecutive years illustrated, which could be a result of ‘panic purchasing’ during the start of the Covid 19 pandemic.

2022: Tuvalu’s COVID 19 borders lockdown was uplifted in 2022 and therefore had a notable impact on Tuvalu’s trade. Total imports 2022 increased by approximately 7% from 2021.

2. Balance of Trade:

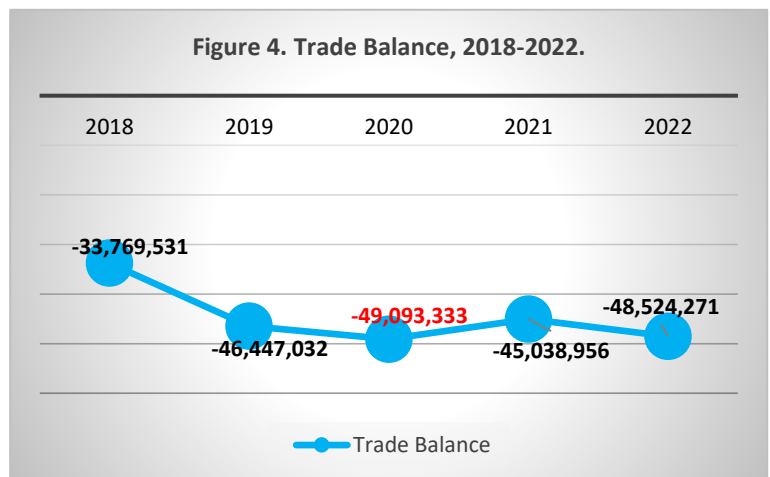

June 2023: As of June 2023, Tuvalu has recorded a considerable trade deficit of $7,067,464.

Figure 3 alongside is a linear representation of Tuvalu’s trade balance from January to June 2023 which shows a major increase in deficit from May to June 2023, which was roughly a 31% increase in deficit.

2018-2022: Throughout the five consecutive years illustrated in Figure 4 alongside, Tuvalu’s trade balance for the annual year of 2020 stood out with an outstanding $49,093,333 in deficit.

In the year 2020, Tuvalu went into border lockdown during the COVID 19 pandemic. For this reason, Tuvalu’s major importers had imported above standard in preparation for the pandemic therefore a major increase in total imports all while Tuvalu’s total exports declined during the pandemic period, as displayed in Figure 2 above.

3. Performance of Imports:

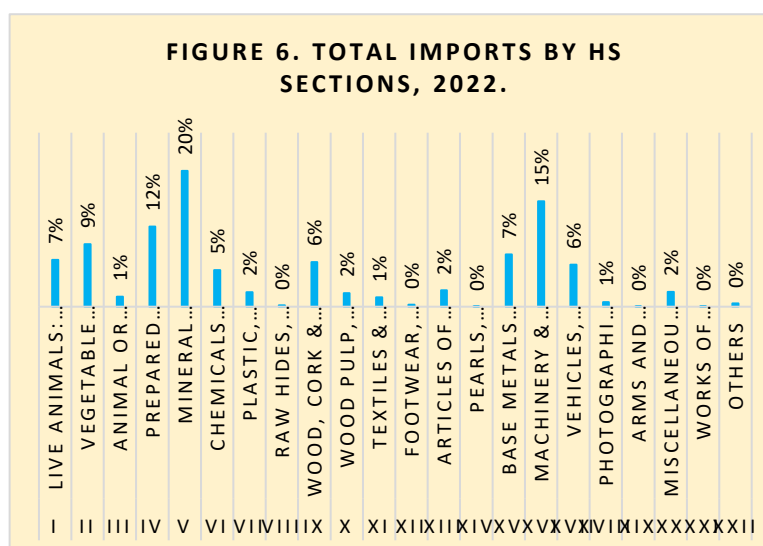

June 2023: The HS sections listed below were accounted of 5% or more of imports;

- Machinery & mechanical & electrical appliances & parts thereof – 23%
- Mineral products – 20%
- Prepared foodstuffs, beverages, spirits & tobacco – 10%
- Vegetable products – 9%
- Live animals: animal products – 7%
- Wood, cork & articles thereof & plaiting material – 7%
- Base metals & articles thereof – 6%

2022: The following HS sections were the most notable for Tuvalu’s imports for 2022, and they were;

- Mineral products – 20%
- Machinery & mechanical & electrical appliances & parts thereof – 15%
- Prepared foodstuffs, beverages, spirits & tobacco – 12%
- Vegetable products – 9%
- Live animals: animal products – 7%
- Base metals & articles thereof – 7%

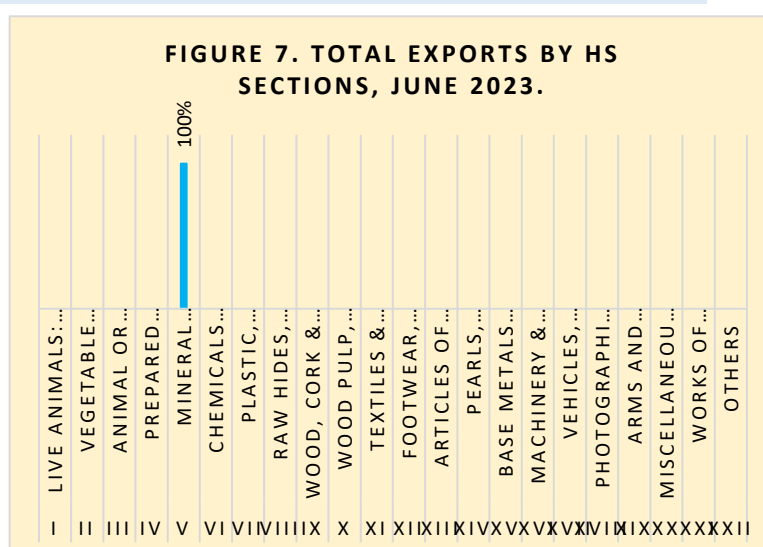

4. Performance of Exports:

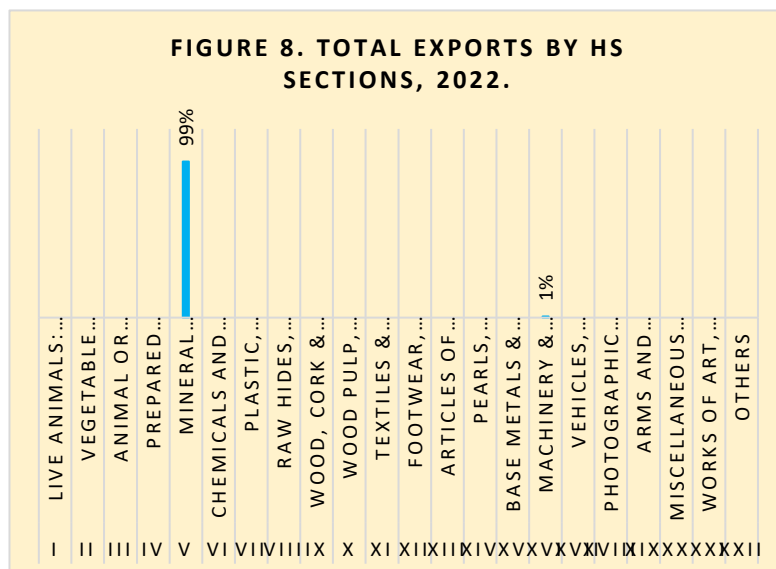

June 2023: As of June 2023, Mineral products was the only commodity being exported by Tuvalu.

Mineral products in this regard are re-exported jet-fuels used to refill aircrafts travelling back from Tuvalu to their respective countries.

Note: Total exports data for 2023 are considered to be preliminary data due to the inconsistency of data collected from primary sources.*

2022: Mineral products accounted for 99% of Tuvalu’s total exports in 2022. Machinery and mechanical appliances, electrical equipment, and parts thereof accounted for 1% of its exports.

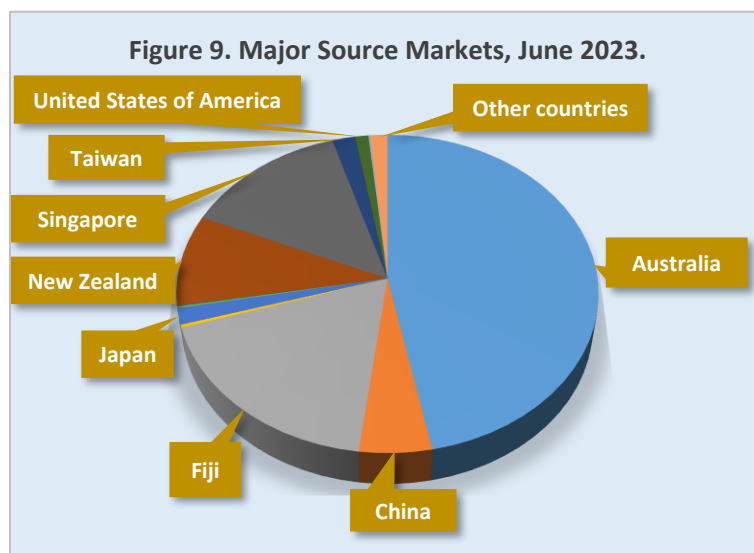

5. Direction of Trade:

a. Major Source Markets:

June 2023: Figure 9 alongside is a pie chart depicting Tuvalu’s major source markets from January to June 2023, and they are as followed;

- Australia 47%
- Fiji 18%
- Singapore 14%
- New Zealand 9%
- China 5%
- Japan 2%
- Taiwan 2%
- USA 1%
- Other countries 2%

In accumulation, $27,116,666 or 74% of total imports were commodities imported from Tuvalu’s regional countries within the Oceania (Australia, Fiji and New Zealand)

2022: Illustrated in Figure 10 alongside are the major source markets for Tuvalu in 2022. Five outstanding countries that contributed most to Tuvalu’s imports were;

- Fiji 30%
- Australia 23%
- New Zealand 18%
- China 8%
- Singapore 7%

Collectively, 71% or $32,336,554 of total imports were accounted for Tuvalu’s neighbouring countries within Oceania shores.

b. Major Destinations:

June 2023: By June 2023, Tuvalu’s major destination for exports is its neighbouring country, Fiji.

Note: These exported commodities are as highlighted in Figure 7 above, which are Mineral products 100%.*

2022: Figure 12 alongside shows Tuvalu’s major destinations in 2022 with Fiji itself accounting for roughly 68% of Tuvalu’s total exports.

6. Trade by Geographical Region:

June 2023: The analyses of Tuvalu’s trade by geographical region, as displayed in Figure 13 alongside shows that trade between Tuvalu and the Oceania dominated over other regions with an indefinite 74% of total imports and 100% of total exports.

2022: In 2022, Tuvalu's trade by region shows that the Oceania had the most trade interaction with Tuvalu. There were roughly 63% of total imports with 79% of total exports from the Oceania regional countries.
